

The Cabarrus Arts Council and The Young Professionals Organization present

A Halloween Masquerade

Spend a hauntingly splendid evening in downtown Concord's Historic Courthouse, where masked and mysterious company awaits.

Join us for wine, beer and some frightfully tasty refreshments in The Galleries while viewing our current exhibition, Black, White and Easily Red.

Venture upstairs to the Davis Theatre, where a classic Hitchcock film will be screened for your enjoyment in a distinctly low-key atmosphere.

Festive black, white and red attire and mask are requested. Be sure to arrive with a mask fit to impress for the masquerade contest.

Friday,
October 29th,
2010
8 PM

The Galleries &
Davis Theatre

Free admission
Reservations required
Space limited
Call by October 22nd

65 Union Street South • Concord, NC • 704 920 ARTS (2787)
www.CabarrusArtsCouncil.org

8 pm Black, White and Easily Red Exhibition in The Galleries
Cash Bar and Desserts Wine $4, Beer $3, Soft Drinks $1

9 pm Hitchcock film screening in Davis Theatre

Be sure to explore Concord's culinary offerings before you arrive:
Union Street Bistro • The Brass Button
Gianni's Trattoria • Emma's Carolina Cuisine and Spirits

